Overseas virtuosos dominate annual piano competition

BLUFFTON TODAY

The winners of the annual Hilton Head International Piano Competition certainly proved the truth of the competition's middle of its name.

From a field of 20, the top three finalists in the Saturday competition were Ilya Maximov of Russia, Rina

Sudo of Japan and Lukas Vondracek of the Czech Republic.

Their pictures and bios are available at www.hhipc.com under 2010 Competitors. Click on their pictures and their bios will appear.

The three will play at 7 p.m. tonight with the Hilton Head Symphony Orchestra at the First Presbyterian Church on William Hilton Parkway.

Shortly after the performance, the first, second and third prize winners will be announced.

A limited number of tickets are still available for this performance. Call the box office at 842-2055 for more information.
